Present perfect (I have done)

Tom is looking for his key. He can't find it.
He has lost his key.

He has lost his key = He lost it recently, and he still doesn't have it.

Have/has lost is the present perfect simple:

I/we/they/you	have	(= I've etc.)	finished
he/she/it	has	(= he's etc.)	lost done been etc.

The present perfect simple is have/has + past participle. The past participle often ends in -ed (finished/decided etc.), but many important verbs are irregular (lost/done/written etc.).

For a list of irregular verbs, see page 12.

Present perfect (I have done) and past simple (I did)

Now Tom has found his key. He has it now.

Has he lost his key? No, he has found it.

Did he lose his key? Yes, he did.

He lost his key (past simple) but now he has found it. (present perfect)

The present perfect (something has happened) is a present tense. It always tells us about the situation now. 'Tom has lost his key' = he doesn't have his key now (see Unit 7).

The past simple (something happened) tells us only about the past. If somebody says 'Tom lost his key', this doesn't tell us whether he has the key now or not. It tells us only that he lost his key at some time in the past.

Do not use the present perfect if the situation now is different. Compare:

- They've gone away. They'll be back on Friday. (they are away now)

They went away, but I think they're back at home now. (not They've gone)

I will and I'm going to Sue is talking to Helen:

will ('ll): We use will when we decide to do something at the time of speaking. The speaker has not decided before. The party is a new idea.

Later that day, Helen meets Dave:

(be) going to: We use (be) going to when we have already decided to do something. Helen had already decided to invite lots of people before she spoke to Dave.

Compare:

- ☐ 'Gary phoned while you were out.' 'OK. I'll call him back.'
- ☐ 'Gary phoned while you were out.' 'Yes, I know. I'm going to call him back.'
- ☐ 'Ann is in hospital.' 'Oh really? I didn't know. I'll go and visit her.'
- ☐ 'Ann is in hospital.' 'Yes, I know. I'm going to visit her this evening.'

When we say that 'something is going to happen', the situation now makes this clear. The man is walking towards the wall now, so we can see that he is going to walk into it.

situation now going to future happening

Past continuous (I was doing)

Yesterday Karen and Jim played tennis. They began at 10 o'clock and finished at 11.30.

So, at 10.30 they were playing tennis.

They were playing = they were in the middle of playing. They had not finished playing.

Was/were -ing is the past continuous:

I/he/she/it	was	playing
we/you/they	were	doing working etc.

I was doing something = I was in the middle of doing something at a certain time. The action or situation had already started before this time, but had not finished:

- ☐ This time last year I was living in Brazil.
- ☐ What were you doing at 10 o'clock last night?
- ☐ I waved to Helen, but she wasn't looking.

Past continuous (I was doing) and past simple (I did)

Past continuous (in the middle of an action)

- ☐ I was walking home when I met Dave.
(in the middle of an action)
- ☐ Kate was watching television when we arrived.

Past simple (complete action)

- ☐ I walked home after the party last night.
(= all the way, completely)
- ☐ Kate watched television a lot when she was ill last year.

Past perfect (I had done)

at 10.30

PAUL

at 11.00

SARAH

Sarah went to a party last week. Paul went to the party too, but they didn't see each other. Paul left the party at 10.30 and Sarah arrived at 11 o'clock. So: When Sarah arrived at the party, Paul wasn't there. He had gone home.

Had gone is the past perfect (simple):

I/we/they/you he/she/it	had	(= I'd etc.) (= he'd etc.)	gone seen finished etc.
----------------------------	------------	-------------------------------	--

The past perfect simple is had + past participle (gone/seen/finished etc.). For a list of irregular verbs, see page 12.

Sometimes we talk about something that happened in the past:

- Sarah arrived at the party.

This is the starting point of the story. Then, if we want to talk about things that happened before this time, we use the past perfect (had ...):

- When Sarah arrived at the party, Paul had already gone home.

Compare the present perfect (have seen etc.) and the past perfect (had seen etc.):

Present perfect

- Who is that woman? I've never seen her before.
- We aren't hungry. We've just had lunch.
- The house is dirty. They haven't cleaned it for weeks.

Past perfect

- I didn't know who she was. I'd never seen her before. (= before that time)
- We weren't hungry. We'd just had lunch.
- The house was dirty. They hadn't cleaned it for weeks.

Reported speech (He said that ...)

PAUL

You want to tell somebody what Paul said.
There are two ways of doing this:

You can repeat Paul's words (direct speech):
Paul said, 'I'm feeling ill.'

Or you can use reported speech:
Paul said that he was feeling ill.

Compare:

direct	Paul said, ' I am feeling ill.'
reported	Paul said that he was feeling ill.

In writing we use these quotation marks to show direct speech.

When we use reported speech, the main verb of the sentence is usually past (Paul said that ... / I told her that ... etc.). The rest of the sentence is usually past too:

- ☐ Paul said that he was feeling ill.
- ☐ I told Lisa that I didn't have any money.

In general, the present form in direct speech changes to the past form in reported speech:

am/is → was	do/does → did	will → would are → were	have/has → had	can → could want/like/know/go etc. → wanted/liked/knew/went etc.

Say and tell

If you say who you are talking to, use tell:

- ☐ Sonia told me that you were in hospital. (not Sonia said me)
- ☐ What did you tell the police? (not say the police)

TELL SOMEBODY

Otherwise use say:

- ☐ Sonia said that you were in hospital. (not Sonia told that ...)
- ☐ What did you say?

SAY SOMEBODY

But you can 'say something to somebody':

- ☐ Ann said goodbye to me and left. (not Ann said me goodbye)
- ☐ What did you say to the police?

If I do ... and If I did ...

(1) Lisa has lost her watch. She tells Sue:

LISA: I've lost my watch. Have you seen it anywhere?

SUE: No, but if I find it, I'll tell you.

In this example, Sue feels there is a real possibility that she will find the watch. So she says:
if I find ... , I'll

(2) Joe says:

If I found a wallet in the street, I'd take it to the police station.

This is a different type of situation. Here, Joe doesn't expect to find a wallet in the street; he is imagining a situation that will probably not happen. So he says:

if I found ... , I'd (= I would) (not if I find ... , I'll ...)

When you imagine something like this, you use if + past
(if I found / if there was / if we didn't etc.).

But the meaning is not past:

- What would you do if you won a million pounds?
(we don't really expect this to happen)

If I had known ...

Last month Gary was in hospital for a few days. Rachel didn't know this, so she didn't go to visit him. They met a few days ago. Rachel said:

If I had known you were in hospital, I would have gone to see you.

Rachel said: If I had known you were in hospital This tells us that she didn't know he was in hospital.

We use if + had ('d) ... to talk about the past (if I had known/been/done etc.):

- I didn't see you when you passed me in the street. If I'd seen you, of course I would have said hello. (but I didn't see you)
- The view was wonderful. If I'd had a camera with me, I would have taken some photographs. (but I didn't have a camera)

Must and can't

Present	I/you/he (etc.)	must can't	be (tired / hungry / at work etc.) be (doing / going / joking etc.) do / get / know / have etc.
----------------	-----------------	-----------------------	---

You can use must to say that you believe something is certain:

- ☐ You've been travelling all day. You must be tired. (Travelling is tiring and you've been travelling all day, so you must be tired.)

You can use can't to say that you believe something is not possible:

- ☐ You've just had lunch. You can't be hungry already. (People are not normally hungry just after eating a meal. You've just eaten, so you can't be hungry.)

Past	I/you/he (etc.)	must can't	have been (asleep / at work etc.) have been (doing / looking etc.) gone / got / known etc.
-------------	-----------------	-----------------------	--

- ☐ I didn't hear the phone. I must have been asleep.
- ☐ Tom walked into a wall. He can't have been looking where he was going.

May and might

Present	I/you/he (etc.)	may might	(not) be (true / in his office etc.) be (doing / working / having etc.) know / work / want etc.
----------------	-----------------	----------------------	---

We use may or might to say that something is a possibility. Usually you can use may or might, so you can say:

- ☐ It may be true. or It might be true. (= perhaps it is true)
- ☐ She might know. or She may know.

Past	I/you/he (etc.)	may might	(not) have been (asleep / at home etc.) been (doing / working / feeling etc.) known / had / wanted / left etc.
-------------	-----------------	----------------------	--

- ☐ A: I wonder why Kate didn't answer the phone.
B: She may have been asleep. (= perhaps she was asleep)
- ☐ A: I was surprised that Kate wasn't at the meeting yesterday.
B: She might not have known about it. (= perhaps she didn't know)

Passive (is done / was done)

The passive is be (is/was etc.) + past participle (done/cleaned/seen etc.):

(be) done (be) cleaned (be) damaged (be) built (be) seen etc.

For irregular past participles (done/seen/known etc.), see page 12.

Present simple active: clean(s) / see(s) etc.

Somebody cleans this room every day.

passive: am/is/are + cleaned/seen etc.

This room is cleaned every day.

- ☐ Many accidents are caused by careless driving.
- ☐ I'm not often invited to parties.
- ☐ How is this word pronounced?

Past simple active: cleaned/saw etc.

Somebody cleaned this room yesterday.

passive: was/were + cleaned/seen etc.

This room was cleaned yesterday.

- We were woken up by a loud noise during the night.
- ‘Did you go to the party?’ ‘No, I wasn’t invited.’
- How much money was stolen in the robbery?

Passive verbs with two objects

Some verbs can have two objects. For example, give:

- Somebody gave the police the information. (= Somebody gave the information to the police)

object 1 object 2

So it is possible to make two passive sentences:

- ☐ The police were given the information. or
The information was given to the police.

Other verbs which can have two objects are:

ask offer pay show teach tell

When we use these verbs in the passive, most often we begin with the person:

- I was offered the job, but I refused it. (= they offered me the job)
- You will be given plenty of time to decide. (= we will give you plenty of time)
- Have you been shown the new machine? (= has anybody shown you?)
- The men were paid £400 to do the work. (= somebody paid the men £400)

Verb + -ing

Here are some verbs that are followed by -ing:

stop	postpone	admit	avoid	imagine	enjoy	suggest
finish	consider	deny	risk	fancy	mind

- Suddenly everybody stopped talking. There was silence.
- I'll do the shopping when I've finished cleaning the flat.

Verb + to ...

If these verbs are followed by another verb, the structure is usually verb + to ... (infinitive)

offer	decide	hope	deserve	promise agree	plan	manage	afford	threaten refuse	arrange	fail	forget	learn

- It was late, so we decided to take a taxi home.
- Simon was in a difficult situation, so I agreed to help him.

Preposition (in/for/about etc.) + -ing

If a preposition (in/for/about etc.) is followed by a verb, the verb ends in -ing:

	preposition	verb (-ing)
Are you interested	in	working	for us?
I'm not very good	at	learning	languages.
Sue must be fed up	with	studying.
What are the advantages	of	having	a car?
Thanks very much	for	inviting	me to your party.
How	about	meeting	for lunch tomorrow?
Why don't you go out	instead of	sitting	at home all the time?
Carol went to work	in spite of	feeling	ill.

Spelling rules

Nouns, verbs and adjectives can have the following endings:

noun + -s/-es (plural)	books	ideas	matches
verb + -s/-es (after he/she/it)	works	enjoys	washes verb + -ing	working	enjoying	washing
verb + -ed	worked	enjoyed	washed
adjective + -er (comparative)	cheaper	quicker	brighter
adjective + -est (superlative)	cheapest	quickest	brightest
adjective + -ly (adverb)	cheaply	quickly	brightly

Words ending in -y (baby, carry, easy etc.)

If a word ends in a *consonant + y (-by/-ry/-sy/-vy etc.)

y changes to ie before the ending -s:

baby/babies	story/stories	country/countries	secretary/secretaries
hurry/hurries	study/studies	apply/applies	try/tries

y changes to i before the ending -ed:

hurry/hurried	study/studied	apply/applied	try/tried
---------------	---------------	---------------	-----------

y changes to i before the endings -er and -est:

easy/easier/easiest	heavy/heavier/heaviest	lucky/luckier/luckiest
---------------------	------------------------	------------------------

y changes to i before the ending -ly:

easy/easily	heavy/heavily	temporary/temporarily
-------------	---------------	-----------------------

Doubling consonants (stop/stopping/stopped, wet/wetter/wettest etc.)

Sometimes a word ends in vowel + consonant. For example:

stop plan rub big wet thin prefer regret

Before the endings -ing/-ed/-er/-est, we double the consonant at the end. So p → pp, n → nn etc. For example:

stop	p → pp	stopping	stopped
plan	n → nn	planning	planned
rub	b → bb	rubbing	rubbed
big	g → gg	bigger	biggest
wet	t → tt	wetter	wettest
thin	n → nn	thinner	thinnest
